Aditya Charan Pachikide

CLOUD ARCHITECT

Profile

I am passionate about Computer Science and Quality. I am a Graphic Design Intern at Newton School, a Web Developer at Google Developer Student Clubs - LPU and am heading the Department of Graphic Design at Coding Ninjas LPU. Currently also learning to work with Google Cloud Platform.

I am very keen on and am exploring the horizons of System Administration and Cloud Computing.
I'm on a drive to constantly improving myself and seeing myself and the world around me, better every other day!
